My sister just adored her afternoon tea. One would think Dawn was British! So when I came across this book I bought it as a gift. She was a Regency author, and just thought the book was so amazing.

The Afternoon Tea Book by Michael Smith

As far as I'm concerned, this book is the definitive book on tea, its history, and authentic tea-time recipes. Many of the recipes may not seem appealing to our American palates, but they are nonetheless authentically British.
