Living With Books by Alan Powers

That rating of three stars is because I'm nice, because there are some nice pictures in the book. This is not really a book about living with books, but about how decorate with books (at times it might just as well have been the book 'Living with boxes') and it's not the same. And it is quite forgettable. I finished the book last night and I can hardly remember anything that was written in it. Nor, actually, much of the illustrations.
